

Estonian MFA calls on Estonians not to travel to Azerbaijan

Written by armenians.hu
Friday, 12 July 2013 12:25

Estonian Ministry of Foreign Affairs calls on Estonians not to travel to Azerbaijan because of possible terrorist attacks.

Azerbaijan, trying to lighten the situation, says that it only applies to the territory of Nagorno-Karabakh. But no, Estonians assess the internal political situation tense and unpredictable, do not rule out terrorist acts.

There is no Estonian Embassy in Azerbaijan. To get a consular assistance must be applied to the Latvian Embassy in Baku or another representations of EU countries.